Explanation.—Persons who are engaged in processing of agricultural produce and are also working as wholesalers or commission agents, or wholesalers and commission agents, both shall be kept in the second category.

7. The value of the lump sum amount shown in Column 3 of the table given in Paragraph 6 shall be determined in the manner that—

(a) the number of commission agents, traders and purchasers in each of the categories mentioned in Rule 6 in each slab who have obtained the licence and are dealing in the specified agricultural produce in the market area shall be multiplied by lump sum shown in Column 3 against each slab and the product so arrived at shall be added together;

Illustration.—If in any market area the number of commission agents, traders and purchasers as the case may be is 20 in the first slab, 50 in the second, 20 in the third and 10 in the fourth, then by multiplying the lump sum, the product and its aggregate would be—

First Slab	20xA = 20A

Fourth	10x4A = 40A
Aggregate of lump sum	= 220A

(b) the amount of total market fee received in the market area during the Agricultural Year 1992-93 in respect of the specified agricultural produce in the respective category shall be increased by fifty per cent thereof and in amount so arrived at 33.3 per cent thereof shall be added;

Illustration.—If the amount of total market fee received in the market area during the Agricultural Year 1992-93 in respect of the specified agricultural produce is Rs 22 lakhs then by increasing fifty per cent thereof, it would be 22+11=Rs 33 lakhs and after addition of 33.3 per cent in this amount it would be Rs (33+11)=Rs 44 lakhs;

(c) the figure arrived at in accordance with sub-paragraph (b) shall be divided by the aggregate lump sum arrived at in the respective category, in accordance with sub-paragraph (a);

Illustration.—If in the respective category the figure arrived at under sub-paragraph (b) is Rs 44 lakhs and the aggregate lump sum arrived at under sub-paragraph (a) is 220A, then the value of lump sum would be 44,00,000 divided by 220 that is Rs 20,000. The lump sum to be paid by a commission agent, trader or purchaser, as the case may be, in the slab of turnover up to Rs 50 lakhs who opts to pay lump sum in lieu of market fee would be Rs 20,000, in the slab of turnover exceeding Rs 50 lakhs but not exceeding Rs 1 crore would be Rs 20,000x2 that is

Rs 40,000, in the slab of turnover exceeding Rs 1 crore but not exceeding Rs 1.5 crore would be Rs 20,000x3 that is Rs 60,000 and so on:

Provided that if such commission agent, trader or purchaser has already paid any amount of market fee in respect of Agricultural Year 1996-97, and he opts to pay a lump sum in lieu of the market fee that may be payable by him, the amount of market fee paid shall be deducted from the amount of lump sum arrived at in accordance with this paragraph.
